Assessment #8: Analyzing Rhetorical Strategies "I Can" Statements

Reading Informational - RI 11-12.1

I can define textual evidence ("word for word" support)

I can define inference and explain how a reader uses textual evidence to reach a logical conclusion ("based on what I've read, It's most likely true that...").

I can read closely and find answers explicitly in text (right there answers) and answers that require an inference.

I can analyze an author's words and determine multiple pieces of textual evidence that strongly and thoroughly support both explicit and inferential questions.

I can determine places in the text that leave matters uncertain (e.g., when the reader must draw his/her own conclusions/assumptions).

Writing - W 11-12.1

I can analyze substantive (influential) topics or texts to determine an argument that causes or has caused a debate in society.

I can choose a side of the argument, identify precise, knowledgeable claims, and establish the significance of the claim(s).

I can identify alternate or opposing claims that counter my argument.

I can organize claims, counterclaims, reasons, and evidence into a logical sequence.

I can anticipate my audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases and develop my claims and counterclaims by pointing out the most relevant strengths and limitations of both.

I can present my argument in a formal style and objective tone.

I can create cohesion and clarify relationships among claims and counterclaims using transitions as well as varied syntax.

I can provide a concluding statement/section that supports my argument.
