

Our Core Values

Community – we all come together to build a structured, supportive environment that holds everyone to high expectations

Resilience – we all work through challenges and adversity, turning mistakes and failures into tools to build success

Empathy – we all strive to understand others' feelings and value their perspectives through listening and sharing

Equity – we all commit to valuing every individual and meeting unique needs to ensure opportunities for all

Knowledge – we all value critical thought and its application, collaborating with others to deepen everyone's education

Self-Reflection – we all seek to understand our strengths and growth areas, taking ownership for our learning and success

Integrity – we are all responsible for speaking and acting in a way that is truthful and aligned with our shared beliefs

Determination– we all work hard, understanding that success requires self-discipline, consistency, and follow-through

Excellence – we all do our best every day in everything we do
