

AREAS OF INFORMATION EXEMPTED
UNDER THE ILLINOIS FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

Information specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal and state laws.

Information which if disclosed would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Personal information maintained with respect to employees or students.

Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations or memoranda.

Pending proposals and bids for any contract.

Test questions, answers, and other data used to administer tests.

Library circulation records by title or patron.

Closed session minutes of the Board of Education.

Communication between the district and their attorney.

Evaluation information of any employee.

Technical information associated with Data Processing .

Materials related to the collective bargaining process.

Information pertaining to financing and marketing transactions of the district.

Information relating to real estate purchases or negotiations.

Records relating to self-insurance of self-administered health programs.

Information regarding a student or employee grievance or disciplinary case.

Course materials or research materials used by staff members.

All information related solely to internal personnel rules and practices.

Architects and engineers plans for buildings.

Data, which if disclosed, would produce private gain or public loss.

Requests which are disruptive to the work of the district.

Requests which are unduly burdensome to fulfill.

Requests which are too general to serve.