- Daily Herald - Streamwood High School presents 'Annie'

By: Linnea Grooms

Date: April 22, 2024

Warbucks, Annie and Grace explore New York City in Streamwood High School's production of "Annie".

Streamwood High School's Fine Arts Department will present "Annie" by Thomas Meehan, Charles Strouse and Martin Charnin at 7 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, April 25 and 26 and at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 27, in the school's auditorium, 701 W. Schaumburg Road, in Streamwood.

Also, join for "Cookies with Annie and Warbucks" before the 11 a.m. performance at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, for only $2 a child.

The show is directed by Linnea Grooms, with vocal direction by Vinny Rivera and Pit Orchestra Director Max Mollenkamp.

With equal measures of pluck and positivity, little orphan Annie charms everyone's hearts despite a next-to-nothing start in 1930s New York City. She is determined to find the parents who abandoned her years ago on the doorstep of a New York City orphanage that is run by the cruel, embittered Miss Hannigan. With the help of the other girls in the orphanage, Annie escapes to the wondrous world of New York City. In adventure after fun-filled adventure, Annie foils Miss Hannigan's evil machinations ... and even befriends President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. She finds a new home and family in billionaire Oliver Warbucks and his personal secretary, Grace Farrell.

Annie is the perfect family-friendly musical.

Behind the scenes is a tech crew of eight students, under the direction of auditorium manager and technical director, Emmalie Hall. The crew is designing and constructing the set, designing and controlling the lighting, organizing all of the props, and handling all of the sound engineering. Costumes are being designed by Ashley Santiago.

Jaylah C., a freshman playing Annie, says, “Annie, for me, is about hope and wanting the best in life. People need to come to see the optimism that Annie gives off.”

Ximena A., a senior who has participated in the Sabre Ensemble Theatre since her sophomore year, reflects on the importance of theater as an art form, “Theater is important. People are able to express themselves when they do theater. The expression they do in theater is different from other activities such as sports or STEM. The theater community is a caring and nonjudgmental community and these are the type of communities people need to be a part of.”

Tickets for these performances will be $8 dollars for students and $10 for a general admission seat and available for purchase at the door.

Settlement in the works? Bartlett High School principal placed on leave may not face public hearing

By: Allcia Fabbre

Date: April 19, 2024

Bartlett High School principal Michael Demovsky.

A Bartlett High School principal accused of improperly changing grades may not face a public hearing before the school board if both sides can come to a settlement.

Attorney Steven Glink, who is representing Bartlett High School Principal Michael Demovsky, said Friday the hearing, originally scheduled for April 22, has been moved to 5 p.m. April 29 to give both sides time to work toward a resolution. Glink declined further comment.

Demovsky was placed on paid administrative leave on March 15 amid a probe into his “administrative practices,” district officials said.

Earlier this month, Glink said Demovsky was being investigated for improperly changing student grades, a charge Glink said was untrue.

“We completely deny that,” he said of the accusation.

Elgin Area School District U-46 officials have said little about the investigation or Demovsky’s leave.

Demovsky requested a private hearing regarding the disciplinary actions, which was held April 8. Neither Demovsky nor his attorney attended that meeting, but Glink sent a letter stating their case.

Glink requested the public hearing, as allowed by law, after board members upheld a previous decision against Demovsky.

At the April 8 meeting, board members approved a resolution of nonrenewal for Demovsky’s contract as principal. They also reaffirmed an earlier decision reclassifying Demovsky from principal to classroom teacher, with a corresponding decrease in pay, for the 2024-25 school year.

“Things like this, we don’t take lightly,” school board member Dawn Martin said before voting for both resolutions. “Whenever we’re discussing personnel matters, there’s a lot of discussions, a lot of reviewing of facts and ... just making sure we’re thinking about everyone before we make these decisions.”

In a letter dated March 22, Glink said the board’s notice of reclassification was disappointing and that it was “filled with false conclusions and a serious misstatement of facts.”

According to the district’s policy, an administrator is not allowed to change grades without notifying the teacher. Reasons for changing a grade include miscalculated test scores, a technical error in assigning a grade or score, a teacher allowing the student to do extra work that could affect a grade, using an inappropriate grading system to determine a score, or an inappropriate grade based on appropriate grading system.

If an administrator, such as a principal, does change a grade, they also must sign the changed record, according to the policy.
