U-46 approves plans to move to full middle schools by 2026-27 school year

Students in this year's third-grade class will be the first sixth-graders to attend a middle school in Elgin Area School District U-46.

Board members this week approved plans that will allow the district to transition to a full middle school model by the start of the 2026-27 school year. Currently, sixth-graders in U-46 attend elementary schools.

In April, voters approved a request to borrow $179 million to help rebuild five elementary schools, two of which date back to the 1800s, and transition to a full middle school model.

Under the plan approved this week, Abbott and Ellis middle schools in Elgin will close after the 2025-26 school year. District officials said it is not cost-effective to update the schools, which have unique challenges such as accessibility and small lots.

Instead, the district plans to build a new middle school on 12.4 acres at 2604 Rohrsen Road adjacent to Hilltop Elementary School in Elgin. District officials pegged construction costs for a new middle school at $90 million to $130 million.

Expansions at Kenyon Woods Middle School in South Elgin and Kimble Middle School in Elgin also are planned. Additions at both schools would accommodate three additional sections at each grade level, bringing each school's capacity to 1,125 students.

Hawk Hollow Elementary School in Bartlett closed at the end of the 2022-23 school year so it can be transformed into a middle school.

District officials anticipate starting construction at Hawk Hollow later this school year. Cost estimates for the project were not yet available as the district is still negotiating bids for the project.

Expansion at Kimball Middle School is expected to cost $40 million to $60 million, while expansion at Kenyon Woods Middle School could cost $30 million to $40 million, officials said. Construction on both projects will start next year, with completion expected in time for the 2026-27 school year.

The district's remaining four middle schools -- Tefft, Canton, Eastview and Larsen -- also will undergo updates.

Overall, the project will help provide students "the safe and modern learning environments they all deserve," U-46 Chief of Staff Brian Lindholm said.

District officials initially planned to switch to a full middle school model by the 2025-26 school year. But they are delaying the start by one year to complete the expansions and construction of a new school.

Hawk Hollow will be ready to open as a middle school by the start of the 2025-26 school year, but district officials have not yet determined what they will do with the building that year.

District officials will begin a review of the elementary schools and host a series of meetings this school year to discuss future plans.

South Elgin's SEBA Park will be chock full o'Halloween gourds next weekend at the annual Pumpkin Patch Fest

By: Mike Danahey

9/29/ 2023

South Elgin's SEBA Park will be the area's center of fall fun next weekend when the village hosts its 22nd annual Pumpkin Patch Festival, a highlight of which is always the pet costume parade.

"We're hoping for beautiful weather like last year," village communications coordinator Craig Pierce said.

Good weather can draw as many as 2,500 to 3,000 people the event, which this year is being held Oct. 7, Parks and Recreation Director Kim Wascher said.

They're also expecting about 50 pets for their third annual parade, she said. It kicks off at 10 a.m. with the costumed critters following a route down South Water Street.

Awards will be given for the scariest, cutest, funniest and best owner/pet get-ups, Wascher said.

"Each year, the costumes are always intriguing," she said.

As one might expect at an event called a Pumpkin Patch Festival, there will, indeed, be pumpkins for sale — 500 of them.

They come courtesy of longtime Kane County Board member Mike Kenyon, who grows the gourds for the fest on his family's farm off Barry Road, near South Elgin High School.

Volunteers from the high school typically provide the labor in transporting the pumpkins from the farm to the park. This year, they will include members of the National Honor Society and the South Elgin volleyball and wrestling teams, Wascher said.

Pumpkin prices will range from $1 to $5 dollars, Wascher said. Mini-pumpkins, cornstalks and hay bales will be available for purchase too.

For anyone who buys a pumpkin and wants to paint it on site, the painting station will be larger this year and they've added a paint-drying area, organizers said.

There will also be pumpkin chucking, where participants can try their luck launching the easily smashed orbs at a target, Wascher said.

A rock climbing tower provided by Ottawa District of Boy Scouts Three Fires Council is another fest favorite, Wascher said. Other attractions include face painting, a hay bale pyramid, a craft show and concessions.

There's no admission to attend the fest, which runs from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 7, in SEBA Park, 151 S. Water St.

6 things as high school football heads into the home stretch

By: John Radke

10/01/ 2023

Hersey's Nasir McKenzie (2) looks for an opening against Palatine earlier this season. (Brian Hill | Staff Photographer)

Is it really October already?

The calendar page from September to October sure seemed to flip in a hurry, and here we are heading into the final three weeks of the high sAs Week 6 has just wrapped up, today we offer 6 things you need to know as we come into the home stretch of the 2023 campaign.

1. Six (wins) and in:

After the dust settled from Friday night's matchups, these schools in the Daily Herald area can start making their playoff plans, as they have reached the six-win total and an automatic playoff berth: Barrington, Hersey, York, Glenbard South, Antioch and Maine West.

Barrington and Hersey are each having banner seasons and should represent the Mid-Suburban League well when playoff time rolls around, the Broncos in Class 8A and the Huskies in 7A.

York, also in 8A, made a run to the state semifinals last year and is hoping to take the next step later this fall.

Glenbard South, a Class 5A school with an enrollment of just under 1,100 pulled off the stunner of the weekend, knocking off previously unbeaten South Elgin, an 8A school that had won 29 straight Upstate Eight Conference games.

Antioch, meanwhile, has qualified for the postseason for the 12th time under coach Brian Glashagel and the seventh time in a row.

Maine West has flown under the radar all season, but the Warriors' schedule is favorable for a potential 9-0 regular season. The last time Maine West went undefeated in the regular season? Try 1959, when the Warriors were 8-0 and there were no playoffs.

2. Five (wins), in need of just one more:

While five wins will likely get you into the playoffs, these schools are in need of one more to make sure they're postseason dancing: Aurora Christian in Class 1A; Montini in Class 3A; IC Catholic Prep and Wheaton Academy in 4A; Carmel in 5A; Geneva, Cary-Grove and Lake Zurich in 6A; Downers Grove North, Batavia and Glenbard East in 7A; South Elgin, West Aurora, Huntley, Naperville Central and Maine South in 8A.

Montini, ICCP, Geneva, Downers North, South Elgin and West Aurora each suffered their first losses Friday.

3. Warren's bouncing back:

The season started slower than any other in recent memory in Gurnee, but perennial power Warren has bounced back from an 0-2 start to win its last four games, including a 54-7 rout of Mundelein on Friday. Couple that with Stevenson's upset of Lake Forest and suddenly coach Bryan McNulty's Blue Devils are alone atop the North Suburban Conference standings. A Week 8 matchup at home against Lake Forest, sandwiched between games against Waukegan and Zion-Benton, would appear to be the only thing standing in the way of another conference title for Warren.

4. Big matchups loom this weekend:

There are more big matchups coming up this weekend. Among others, Geneva (5-1) plays at Wheaton North (3-3), Huntley (5-1) travels to Cary-Grove (5-1) for a Saturday game, Glenbard West (4-1) is at York (6-0), Carmel (5-1) hits the road to New Lenox to battle Providence (4-2), and IC Catholic Prep (5-1) hosts Loyola (6-0).

5. Record-breaking day for CL South QB:

One thing that stood out from Week 6? When was the last time you saw a high school quarterback throw 65 passes in one game? Crystal Lake South senior Caden Casimino had a record-setting day, breaking the Gators' single-game record with 546 passing yards on 65 attempts Friday in a 54-43 Fox Valley Conference loss to Huntley.

6. State finals now in Normal:

Finally, a quick reminder that state finals weekend (Nov. 24-25), which has been alternating between NIU's Huskie Stadium and Memorial Stadium in Champaign, now settles into Hancock Stadium at Illinois State University in Normal for at least the next five years. Hancock Stadium hosted the inaugural state finals in 1974 and hosted over 100 football state championship games from 1974 to 1998

Fasten those seat belts, fans. It looks to be a great ride to the end.

Glenbard South snaps South Elgin's 29-game Uptate Eight Conference winning streak

By: Craig Brueske

9/29/ 2023

South Elgin's 29-game Uptate Eight Conference football winning streak -- and 22-game homefield winning streak came to a halt Friday night as Glenbard South (6-0, 6-0) held on for an emotional 14-13 victory.

Senior defensive tackle Jack Everett Anderson's sack of Storm reserve quarterback Stewart Williams on second-and-10 from the Raiders' 35-yard line in the final seconds helped preserve Glenbard South's first victory over the Storm (5-1, 5-1).

"It's amazing," said Anderson, who also started at tackle on offense for the Raiders. "It's my first year here, so coming over and helping these guys get this win -- it feels great.

"I played on the offensive line in the (Class 8A) state semifinals at Glenbard West last year.

Tonight, I was going to do everything I could to get these seniors a win. It means a lot."

Anderson was one of the many heroes for the Raiders, who held the Storm to just 82 yards of total offense, including 8 rushing yards, while building a 14-0 halftime lead.

Junior tailback Vontae Clark (17 carries, 131 yards) got the Raiders on the scoreboard with a 3-yard touchdown run midway through the opening quarter, capping a brief 3-play, 25-yard drive that was set up by a 7-yard South Elgin punt.

Early in the second quarter the Raiders added to their lead when Cam Williams scored from a yard out while running the Wildcat formation.

Senior defensive back Justin Jones' one-handed interception helped stop a late first-half Storm possession.

South Elgin was far from finished.

The Storm marched 62 yards in 8 plays with the opening kickoff of the second half, capped by Jack Ginnan's 18-yard touchdown pass to Lucas Noworol to trim the deficit to 14-7.

On South Elgin's next possession Ginnan rolled off several Glenbard South would-be tacklers without putting his knee to the ground and raced 45 yards into the end zone to make it 14-13 with 1:38 left in the third quarter.

However, the extra-point kick caromed off the crossbar, leaving the Raiders on top, 14-13.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Storm executed a perfect fake punt, as Williams connected with Ishmael George for a 26-yard gain to set up a 1st-and-10 at the Raiders' 14.

On the next play the Storm fumbled the ball back to Glenbard South.

South Elgin's final possession began on its own 8 with 4:02 remaining.

The Storm moved the ball to the Raiders' 35 before Anderson's game-clinching sack ended the game.

"They backed us up big time," Raiders coach Ryan Crissey said of his team's defense. "The goal was to control the line of scrimmage, and I thought we did that for the most part.

"(South Elgin) Coach (Dragan) Teonic prepares that team like no other, but we have one of the most persevering team groups that I've ever coached. It's a huge win for the program."

"Tonight, we brought it," Clark added. "We showed who we are and what we're made of."

Ginnan completed 5 of 13 passes for 92 yards and added 76 yards rushing on 8 carries before leaving the game with a lower leg injury in the final four minutes.

"We didn't manage situations well," Teonic said. "Hats off to them -- they played well. We shanked two punts, we missed an extra point, and we had two turnovers.

"That fake punt was awesome and put us in great position, but we just missed that opportunity."
